“ Verlinda, My heart breaks for younas i know you recently lost your husband and now your dad. My maiden name was Sue Rea. I lived in Capron and can remember your dad working in the Coop station there.(you were very young). A further connection was my mom, Mary Rea Burnidge, worked in the office (over the Alva gas station) for at least 25 years. It's been years since i have seen you. I remember Kent (and his parents) as in my married life in Alva, i attended church with them. All this to say, even though you may never remember me, there are people in many places who feel your heartache and wish comfort in your sorrow.

“ Dean was a special man! Years ago, when he worked at the Alva Co-op, I lived 25 miles from town, working at the courthouse. In the winter , (as Dean would say), when the first snowflake fell, I would go in for Dean to put the studded tires on my car! He always teased me about " rushing the season". He was so friendly & dependable to his customers. Our pew at church was just in front of him &Virgie....good memories of this special couple. Blessings for your comfort, Verlinda & family.
