“ I REMEMBER TOMMY:

I first remember Tommy when he worked at a filling station in Woodward. I was just a little kid, but I remember thinking. "He is so handsome". I later became reacquainted at Grandmother Guthrie's funeral. He kept taking my hat off and I had to chase him to get it back. Larry and Tommy were playing keep away with me. We did go to several family reunions as the years went by. Later on Wilma passed and then my dad passed and Tommy started coming to Wichita to see my mom, Vera. On time I was in the hospital and mom and Tommy came to see me and he walked me up and down the hallway. Another time Aunt Eva was visiting us in Wichita and Tommy came up. I was driving a van at the time and so took them around. Linda Beeler was with us. We stopped to buy Tommy a case of cherry Pepsi and it was in the back of the van. We were going down Douglas and I had to stop fast and the case of Pepsi came to the front and startled Linda and Aunt Eva. Linda said, "What was that?" We all had a good laugh. Tommy and Eva talked non stop at the same time. We were amazed that they could understand each other. We couldn't tell what they were saying. When Tommy's mom died, he went to Aunt Ruth and asked her if she could be his momma. He treated her as a mom and visited her daily till she passed. During that time, we visited Aunt Ruth and Tommy and I went to his church. He was dressed in a suit and I was dressed up also. People were all talking. They thought Tommy had a girl friend. I don't remember if he ever cleared that up. We had a good laugh over that one. I know him as always having a smile, a good word and a willing heart. He will be so missed by so many, but he is now joyful with his wonderful wife Wilma and all those who went before him. I will see him again since we both have the same Savior, Jesus Christ.
