Angelee Eshleman Hannaford, 47, of Stillwater and Alva, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on October 29th, 2018, after a courageous fight with cancer in Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Angelee was born in Alva, to Roger S. Hannaford and Judy Ann Hannaford on November 25th, 1970. She graduated from Alva High School and then continued to OSU and Meridian Technology Center to complete her Cosmetology Degree. She worked primarily in customer service, always greeting others with her kind personality and infectious smile. She attended Life Church and was a member of the Stillwater Chamber of Commerce.

Angelee loved people, her fur babies and God. Ang always greeted you with her beautiful smile that lit up the state of Oklahoma and had a hug for everyone. She was the number one OSU Cowboys fan and her favorite color was orange. She was an exceptional friend and sister but an even more amazing daughter. Ang never hesitated to help others and will always be remembered as selfless, kind, and soft-hearted.

Angelee is preceded in death by her grandparents, Elvin and Verla Eshleman, and her father, Roger Hannaford.

Her beautiful life will be cherished by her mother, Judy Hannaford; sisters, Kimberley Carter (David), Doll Fisher Carter (Marc), Misty and Shona; nieces, Kelsey Fisher, Shelby Heasley, and Becky Carter; beloved family, the McInturffs and the Shorts; long-time neighbor/friend, Vanessa Baiston; along with many other close family and friends.

Because of her love for the OSU Cowboys, Angie's wish is that everyone wear orange to the service. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made through the funeral home to the American Liver Foundation or the Karman Legacy Hospice.

“ This morning my daughter reminded me of a memory with Angelee. A few years ago, we were at the big craft fair that’s always the first weekend of November in Stillwater. We bumped into Angelee there. There was a booth in a corner of OSU shirts, bling and all. Angelee found a shirt she loved but wanted to make sure it fit. She takes the shirt further into the corner kind of behind the racks, proceeds to TAKE OFF her shirt (my daughter immediately giggled and blushed) to try on this OSU shirt. Angelee says to Cassie “it’s OK guys rarely come thru here anyway,” Just as Angelee removes the OSU shirt a guy walked around the corner and Angelee dropped to the floor! I’ve never seen anyone put a shirt on so fast! We all laughed so hard! We remember that moment every year at the craft fair and giggle every time we walk by that corner. She always had a smile and always lighted up the room.

“ Ang loved unconditionally. No matter how mean I was to her growing up, she never stopped loving me and forgiving me. She was the best little sister that anyone could have. She leaves a tremendous void in the hearts of so many family and friends. Good bye my little Ang I know there's an orange angel up in heaven lighting up the world with a smile.
