“ Such a sad occasion to say goodbye to a childhood friend...it offers a sense of urgency to live better, love harder and linger longer with the important ones in our lives. Barb was a spunky one! It was so good to see her happy and loving life at our 30th class reunion. She will be missed.

“ Myself, Becky, Hannah and Victoria lived next door to Barb for 10 years in Lee&s Summit. We were shocked to hear about her condition. We sent her an announcement for Hannah and Victoria&s graduation. She couldn&t come, but we were told of her condition by mutual friends at Hannah and Victoria&s graduation party. Barb called me after the fact wanting to know where to send gifts, and that was only a few weeks before she passed away. Just like her, always thinking of others. We will miss her.

“ Our deepest sorrow for the loss of such a wonderful woman. I so enjoyed our lunches in Arkansas when she came to the Wal-Mart home office. I know she is in a better place and her pain is over.

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. Barb was a wonderful person and will be missed greatly. She was an inspiration to all who knew her! For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd; ?he will lead them to springs of living water.? ?And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.? Rev 7:17
I am thankful to have gotten to see Barb again a couple of years ago at our reunion. She&s having a much better reunion now!
