“ I have lived on the same street for years. She was the best. Known all her children since they were young. She raised them to respect others and never turn your back on each other. Grandmother Trusedale showed love to all her grandkids. She helped with the American Legion as long as I can remember. I will miss her smile and the friendship she showed me. She will never be forgotten because her soul lives on in the family she cared for. Thanks for being my neighbor.
