“ *Dear Nieta and family,
Sorry to hear of your loss especially during these trying times. I can remember going up to your house on Center St. in Alva and watching the girls and thinking that you and Danny were some of the nicest people that I knew. I also know that your family was well liked in Alva. You were all missed when you left. It doesn't surprise me that Danny went on to do such great work in his practice of law. I am sure that will be missed also as not many seem to practice that way any more. May God bless you all!
Sending you virtual hugs.*

Together, your manner of the Love of Life has always reminded us of the importance of Compassionate Living.
