“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss. I lived across from the family there on High street, Darrell bought our house I lived in for many years, and Rob graduated in his class, Rob also hunted on the farm for many years, I did not know he was ill, may our prayers and many many thoughts go out to the family and know you will 1 day unite. Just know God has a plan, and you will all be together again soon. Hunting and fishing and farming as the family all knew. May God Bless you all.

“ Sandy, Kristin, Skylar, and Isaiah,
I am so sorry we lost Darrell, Jr. He and I recently had such a great visit when I was in Waynoka and again at the ranch when he, Skylar, and Kristin spent the evening with me and others the night before I returned to Texas. I will treasure that memory forever. Darrel will be missed so very much. May God comfort and bless you in your time of sorrow.
