“ Dave and my dad, Joe were lifelong friends from school age to adulthood. I have fond memories of spending time with the Moores from early times with Lark and Tracy on the farm to later years with Gloria playing Yahtzee. Dave liked to mess with me when I was little due to my fear of heights. He was a tall man and used to lift me up above his head just to make me squirm. Lol. I had the pleasure of talking to him over the phone in 2018. I am so sorry that life got in the way and I never called him back for another conversation and to hear more stories about him and Dad in their younger days. Rest in peace Dave. I hope you and Dad are having some great times in Heaven. Blessings to Tracy and Gloria and the rest of the family. I am so sorry for the loss of your dad and life partner and I was sorry to read about little David as well. Love, Patricia O'Donnell
