“ My prayers and condolences to the family of Doug, as he was quite the human being. I met Doug online in Goldrushchat when he would be stopped at a truck stop and get in the internet. He used to come into Goldrush chatroom and we would tease each other for an hour or two. He was quite charming and witty, often times making us feel as if we had met him in the local restaurant. I still have the photo he sent me of his truck about the time he retired from truck driving and I still have one of the links to the internet radio station he dj&d at for a time. I will forever miss his humor and "poking my eyes out with his two fingers" in a chatroom. May eternal rest be granted to his wonderful soul. Goodbye buddy and friend!
