Dustin Arthur Goodrich, son of Chester Arthur and Yvette (Easterly) Goodrich, was born September 27, 1968, at Alva, Oklahoma, and passed away October 5, 2017, at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, at the age of 49 years and 8 days.

After Dustin graduated from Alva High School, he received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Psychology from NWOSU. While at Northwestern, he set many records in pole vaulting which still stand today. One year, he placed second in the nation in pole vaulting. He then went to SWOSU and received his Master's Degree in Clinical Psychology.

He was united in marriage to Maureen Mulcahy and they were blessed with two children, Devin and Drake. He moved to Colorado for a time where he practiced Psychology. He later returned to Alva where he joined his father in the family plumbing business. He was later united in marriage to Crystal Martin.

He enjoyed motorcycles, especially dirt bikes, hunting and fishing, climbing and rappelling, and playing drums. He also loved animals.

Dustin is survived by children, Devin Goodrich of Oklahoma City and Drake Goodrich of Henderson, Nevada; his parents, Chet and Yvette Goodrich of Alva; two sisters, Gaynell Goodrich of Wichita, and Kim Williamson and husband, David, of Oklahoma City; grandfather, Eldon Easterly of Alva; five nieces and nephews, Travis and Derek Courtright, and Tim, Callie, and Kelsi Williamson; other relatives and many friends.

“ Dustin was always there for me and Victoria. He used to do her bee stings for her when I wasn't in town. There are too many great memories that I can't just pick one to share. He was always positive and supportive. It didn't matter how long it had been since we talked, it always felt like it was yesterday. He was loved by so many. He will be missed, but always loved a remembered!

“ Dustin was an original NW OK wild man. Nobody else said it, but I will. He's also one of the most intelligent and unique thinkers I've ever met in all my years of asking people "what do you think?" Sure, he was wreathed in rich smells and had a predilection toward discussions that ended in theatrical yells, but he was a brother when it was one-on-one. When Alva was my personal hell, he was my tour guide. He challenged me to make the best of it, no matter what it took. He was in the wrong place at the wrong time. That was his super power. But, he pulled hard at the threads in this rich tapestry that we call life; claimed he was lookin' for clues. Lyrics: heaven 4 a gangster. Can't forget about my OG. DAG. Pour one out. You know who you are. I'd come to your funeral, but you heard my promise: I ain't never going back. Thanks for the tour, all the same. BC

“Dustin was a longtime childhood friend and I have many memories of him. I remember the dirt bikes in the canyon, his treehouse, his buddies Chris, and Tim (he was always surrounded by friends and was a friend to all). He was a giver and a very fun-loving soul. He was so athletic- pole vaulting, running, you name it- he could do it... playing in band as a drummer and just being good at most he touched. He was smart and very handsome. I remember early Sunday School days at First Pres in Alva, with Dustin and Chris. He was a super great heart and will forever be remembered as that. My heart goes out to Yvette, Chet and the whole family right now and I pray God's peace and comfort envelope you all. Prayers for you all!

“ Dustin and I were best of friends through the 8th grade. He taught me how to ride motorcycles and how to shoot guns. It was always fun at Dustin's. His dad would take us up in his airplane, or to ride gocarts. Dustin and I would ride motorcycles all day around his neighborhood on Ridgeway Drive. We were always up to something. I will miss him, he was one of s kind. Love you man! ”
