Funeral services for Dwight Clifford Little will be 10:00 a.m. Saturday, March 24, 2007, at the Alva Wesleyan Church with Rev. Harold Henson and Rev. Ron Olson officiating. Interment will be in the Alva Municipal Cemetery under the direction of Marshall Funeral Home of Alva.

Dwight Clifford Little, son of the late Oren Hinman and Leona Inez (Merklin) Little, was born July 12, 1915, on the Little Ranch in northwest Woods County, Oklahoma, and passed away March 19, 2007, at Share Medical Center in Alva, Oklahoma, at the age of 91 years, 8 months, and 7 days.

Dwight attended the Little Grade School. Since Dwight's family lived 30 miles northwest of town, he ran to school, stayed during the week, and ran home after school was out on Friday. He graduated from Northwest Normal School and received some college credit while in highschool. He was active in Future Farmers of Oklahoma before there was a Future Farmers of America.

He groomed, showed, and judged livestock during and after highschool.

On August 10, 1937, he was united in marriage to Estella Mae Hada at Woodward, Oklahoma. They lived their life on the farm northwest of Alva where they farmed and ranched. They were early and good stewards of the land. During World War II, he broke horses for the United States Army. He drove a school bus for Alva Public Schools for 27 years.

In 1930, he helped organize and was a charter member of the Cedar Grove Wesleyan Church. Over the years, he taught Sunday School to both youth and adults. He loved to tell stories and tinker with antique automobiles.

Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Estella Mae on June 23, 2000; one son, Stanley Little, in 1971; one brother, Don Little; three sisters, Helen Renzema, Eva Steevens, and Wanda Dressler.
