“ What a precious life that has gone before us. Meme was an amazing person and grandmother. I will never forget her sweet voice, loving nature and wonderful smile everytime we walked into the room. I am so proud and thankful to have been part of her life if only for a little while.

Ashlyn and Brayden will miss her so much. They loved going to see her and sharing her candy and messing with her wheel chair. There will be a special place in her heart for us that will be a little empty now.

This isn't good-bye its see you later.

Love you meme
