“ I spent alot of time at Aunt Earl's home. And when I had kids of my own she enjoyed watching them. She was like a grandmother to them. And she always had a meal fit for Kings and queens. If you cleaned your plate you knew there was a dessert waiting as a treat.

But I think she was happiest when she wore the beautiful outfit to go square dancing. Aunt Earl and Uncle Dean would looked so beautiful as they danced together. I loved sending time with them. Aunt Earl I will miss you dearly but I know I'll get to see you in heaven.
