“ Eunice was one of my favorite gals in Waynoka. She was like a grandma to me. She always asked me how I was and then she gave me a hug. I loved her very much. Gods Blessings, Taylor E. Waggoner

“ During the time I worked at WNC while I was expecting Eunice would come to the desk every night to see what snacks I had brought with me. I will always remember how wide her eyes would get when I'd tell her to pick what she wanted. Eunice will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
