“ Dear Girls, I loved your dad very much. I think the memories I have of him will last a live time. I remember how he thourgh Kathina to 2 step when she was only 5 years old. He put her little red cowboy boots on top of her and they danced the night away to Fred and the Outlaws at the Carmen dance. I still have those boots and think of your dad each time I see them. You girls had a very special place in my life as well as your dads. I still remember the time we shared with your family. Your dad saved my life one time and I will always be grateful for his friendship. My God bless each one of you in your time of sorrow. I have and always will hold a special place in my heart for you. Love Lisa. Just remember these words. "His Boots were made for Walking" we know he is 2 stepping across the clouds above us.
