“ Uncle Glen was always teasing us little kids about throwing us into the horse tank of course he never did but made us believe it. He always called us Boys so we called him Uncle Girlie. We had a running joke that I was going to be his nurse because he let me pick a sticker out of his finger once and only once. He said I dug to China to get it. ❤️ You Uncle Glen and family.

Growing up I knew I had more than my parents looking out for me. Glenn was one of the Dads that came to watch all of us girls when we were freshman be initiated into FFA. We had to go through what the boys did. And that's the way it was. We were all taught we could do whatever we set our minds to do. The ties go beyond being a cousin, he was one of the Dads that looked out for me. I am blessed to have experienced this love from such a kind man. He and Dad grew up together & had many stories to tell. Love you all. He will always be a part of me.

Watching him stand over the floor furnace at the Grandfolks to warm up after feeding cows in the cold. A Mans Man, a Cowboy, a larger than life gentleman. Someone to look up too, a Uncle that everyone deserves. A wonderful Man I'll never forget. Love you Uncle Glen... the Frito Bandito .
