“ I am so sorry to hear of Cary's passing. To Glen, Jacque, Ann and Susan my thoughts and prayers are with you during your time of loss. Cary was my best friend from back in the day. While our paths didn't cross as often in later years, when we saw one another we always took the time to catch up and reminisce a little. I will miss you buddy. David Strawn

“Glen, Jacque, Anne & Susan...Words cannot express our deep sympathy for your loss. Cary was one of the good guys, a lifelong friend & ever the gentleman. When Cary came to visit he always asked after the kids, oohed & awed over them when they were babies and always asked how they were & what they were doing that was new, kind of unusual for a man. He always asked about me as well before settling in for a visit with Larry. Cary took the time to make sure that I was included in the conversation if I wasn't busy with something else & never let me try to decipher what it was, he would always take the time to explain something he knew I might not understand without my asking. He truly was a wonderful man and will be missed.
I am thankful he is no longer suffering, God got a good man. All our love and prayers.

“Although Cary was quiet, I always felt that when he was talking to me, it was conversation worthwhile. It seemed, growing up, that he was a “larger than life” cowboy as I watched him many summers on the Crusinbery farm riding his horse. I just wanted to be out there with him...riding! As I got older, I realized how hard he worked, and it wasn't just all fun and games. He was a valued member of our family, and his presence will surely be missed, not only by his children, but to those closest to him.

“ Cary was a quiet and kind man. He had a way to always make you know he was your friend. I always enjoyed visiting with Cary, his conversations were never wordy but were always meaningful. I especially appreciated how he would greet people, it was a special way in that he was quiet in the greeting but it was always warm and heartfelt. Cary will be missed by many. The world just doesn't have enough good people like Cary in it and now it has one less. God Bless the Crusinbery family in this time of great loss. Thank you Lord for allowing me to have friends like Cary.

“ It was a great honor to be raised around such a great guy with a big heart. I will miss our conversation about what trouble our father's were up to lately. Rest knowing he is no longer hurting and is watching over us. Hugs for all

“ Glen, Jacque, Ann & Susan...our hearts mourn your loss. Lots of memories to be cherished of Cary & Alan as little boys. A while back, visited with Cary; of course mentioning "peanut butter sandwiches"! I'll never forget that. We pray for each of you to find comfort in special memories of such a special young man. We understand!
