“ When I pastored at Alva Friends Grace was one of the church members i called on the most. Not because she needed it the most but because she was so enjoyable to visit. Her baked goodies wete a draw too! For the first few years Keith was with her and she held up both his and her side of conversation (keith being a man of few words)

Grace was so refreshing in her honesty. If you asked her what you thought about something she would tell you point blank. And nothing was dearer to her than her family. My how she sang your praises! No one had a better daughter than you, Barbara and Halah she constantly talked about how lucky and blessed Alva High was to have you as a teacher! I will never forget her welcoming smile, dry sense of humor, and her warmth. I loved her and was blessed to be her pastor and friend. Amazing Grace indeed! My love and prayers are with all of you.

“ Grace was such a lovely lady in every way. My thoughts of her go back to when we would sit in church together at times and we talked on the phone and I would go by to visit her and admire her beautiful flowers and just to be around her delightful personality was a blessing.

“ Grace's family,
What a privilege to have known Grace. She was so thoughtful and giving. She was wonderful to have as a neighbor. Whether it was her delicious cinnamon rolls, homemade noodles, or popcorn balls -
- we thoroughly enjoyed her sharing the fruits of her labor! She also gave us beautiful cannas. Summers were great when she gave us bags of home grown cucumbers, summer squash and zucchini.
We are so blessed to have had Grace not only as a neighbor, but to know her as a strong Christian woman.
