“ Patty you were always my dispatcher, I knew I was looked after when you were there. I always asked when I came on duty, “Who’s on four to midnight?” Patty is. Ok, I’m good then.
Jack was a good friend to me and my dad. I’ll miss our talks at the shop every time I serviced extinguishers. I think I spent more time talking with him than my actual work took. But that was ok. He always asked about dad, and our kids. He is just a good man. I will always cherish knowing him and having you by my side for so many years.
