Jacob Albert Roach passed away on March 1, 2025 in Alva, Oklahoma. A resident of Alva, Oklahoma since 1997. Jacob was born on June 10, 1994 , to Kiili Westenhaver and Troy Roach III in Boise City, Oklahoma. Jacob was married to the love of his life Ellie McCullough. Although Jacob and Ellie had no children they considered their fur babies their children. Jacob graduated from High School at the Pueblo Community College Program in 2013. He enjoyed the simple life in Pueblo West Colorado. Some of the outside hobbies he enjoyed doing were kayaking, archery, dirt biking, jet skiing, tubing, camping with family, and most definitely fishing. He also enjoyed gaming with his friends, and family. He loved his family especially his nieces and nephews. He enjoyed spending time with Ellie watching movies, playing with the fur babies, long car rides and star gazing. He liked dragons, renaissance fairs, sci-fi and anime. He enjoyed cooking and his dream was to become a chef. In his lifetime he worked at various places to get more experience within his dream. You had to have known him to understand his unique personality, some of which may not be appropriate to discuss. He loved to play jokes on everyone just to see someone's smile/laugh. Some of the funny things he would do is dress as hula Hawaiian Girl. When the fur babies would be mischievous he would joke and say "I'm going to turn you into Orange Chicken".

He was an ornery child and was always getting into mischief. Examples: Breaking out windows and blaming it on his sister (knowing dang well he was a momma boy going to get his way), Busting a water bed, going through everyone's stuff and making contraptions with it, thinking he was a Dukes of hazzard driver.

“ Never will forgot all the camping trips we've taken with you all. So much fun we always had. I got stuck in the Tube your mom went head first into the water next to the propeller! All the jet skiing. You boys always kept us on our toes for sure! We never really knew what you all might conjure up next or what might be hiding in a dark corner. You will certainly be missed and was loved by all. Love you Jacob!
