“ I remember helping him get his Elvis fan club off the ground. He was 22 years old. Lost track of him. He was very easy to get along with.

“ I was a friend of Jim&s because we both loved Elvis for many years. I will miss his friendship. He was a terrific person, and at one time, he wanted to buy my entire Elvis collection, but I just couldn&t part with my menus from Las Vegas & Lake Tahoe. But, nevertheless, we were great friends. He is up with Jesus now, so God bless him.

“ Although I never met Jim, the quality of his books and photographs had a big influence on me. I am thankful he lived and I want to let his family know how far his reach was around the world. Ian Mackay in Scotland.

“ Since I moved back to Ponca City I have lost contact with many friends. I consider Jim as one of them. A lot of us spent a lot of time following NWOSU athletics. Jim could drive that red van with "Ride Rangers Ride" on the side of it, for hours without getting tired. When we took the airplane he never seemed nervous as a passenger. An annual event that I remember well was when one or two van loads of us would go to Dallas or Kansas City to see baseball or football games. I will miss and remember Jim.

“ I am saddened to hear of Jim&s passing. We were best friends and sat by each other in the sixth grade at Washington Elementary. The "Elvis" phenomenu broke into every body&s consciousness in 1956 while we were sixth graders. Jim was an immediate 12-year old fan which is one of my fondest memories of Jim.

“ I am sadden by the passing of my long time friend Jim, who I have known for more than 30 years. We always had a fun time in Memphis during Elvis Week and the birthday celebrations. Last year during August 2012, Jim said that could possibly be his last Elvis Week, but he would try for the 35th anniversary and end things than, as it was getting harder for him to travel. I will so miss his wonderful Christmas cards each year and he was a true gentelman in every sense of the word. God Bless you Jim ! Elvis Week 2012 will NOT be the same without you there to talk with. “ No words can express our sorrow for the loss of our dear friend Jim. Jim and I met during an Elvis show in Memphis, TN, Aug. 1978. We became instant Elvis buddies. We had good times in Memphis, Tupelo and Tunica many times. Jim had some of the best Elvis collectibles in the world. He shared his many Elvis memories with everyone. This Elvis Fan Festival in August will be dedicated to his memory! Our sincere condolences to Jim&s family! He will remain in our hearts and our prayers! RIP Jim.

“ We are so saddened to hear of the loss of our good friend, Jim. Even before meeting in person in Memphis decades ago, we were pen-pals. We always enjoyed spending time with Jim and Diane. Rest in peace, dear friend. Elvis Week won&t be complete without you. Our sympathy to your children.

“ Jim and I were great pals in Junior High and High School. We worked as stockers and bagboys at Ideal Grocery and, when Safeway opened, we moved there together for a nickel-an-hour raise. In the evenings when business had slackened, our job was to face the shelves, that is, to move cans and packages to the fronts of the shelves so everything looked fully stocked. Jim developed the hobby of looking at the labels on the items to see where they were manufactured. When he once told me he knew where every item in the Safeway store was made, I was, to say the least, skeptical. We walked around the store together, and I picked, at random, six items from the shelves and asked him where each was made. He named the city and state correctly for all six!

“ I was/am sad to learn of Jim&s passing. We weren&t best friends or such, but I did spend time at Shafer Electronics on the square admiring all the latest gadgets in my youth. Seems he knew everything about each of them. He helped direct and inform me in my first ever Fisher Brand receiver amp/tuner, Fisher turntable and Fisher speakers. This was a big purchase for this 16 y/o. He always treated people with respect regardless of their place or circumstances in life. He had a lovely wife and together they raised two wonderful, now young adults. RIP Jim and we pray for your family to find comfort during this time of great sadness.

“ May the Father of tender mercies, the God of all Comfort, console the family and friends in this time of deep sorrow. My family and I send our sincere condolences. When the enemy death strikes our grief can be great. It is at times like this that we need comfort and support whether we are acquainted or not . May you find comfort in Almighty God promise of the resurrection - Acts 24:15. All of God&s promises will come true, for it is impossible for God to lie - Hebrews 6:18. Respectfully
