“ Last time I saw James was 22 years ago when they all traveled to California for my daughter’s funeral. I remember him being such a sweet young man and so polite. He had a very contagious smile and as an adult seeing pictures of him and that smile reminds me of how much he looks like his Great Uncle Carl Reeder my dad. I wish we didn’t live so far away and I could have gotten to see him more. But I still followed posts of Facebook with him and his beautiful family. You will be missed my little cousin and I will always love you. Love Gale Reeder from Fresno Ca.

“ When James was a little boy I would kiss him on the cheek and he would get so mad at me so one day he made me wipe my lipstick off before he'd let me kiss him. Another time, he stayed the night with me, Kevin and Ricky. I made hot dogs for supper and he didn't want them cause he was so picky about what he ate. I told him to eat them cause I wasn't going to cook anything else. “He called his mom”. lol The last I spent with James was in Yukon and we had the best time. We went out and ate then he came to my house and helped me put up the chickens. We may have had a few beers. lol. James was a good nephew although I didn't get to see him much as he got older. We have so many more memories He has always been in my thoughts and prayers and I will miss him so much!!!! I love you James Paul and I will see you again one day.
