“ I remember the 1st time I walk in that Teddy Bear room. My eyes bugged out. I'm sure there was a few from me. I'd win them bears in them claw machines. Would lay it there on the counter and Uncle Ivan would take them house to Mama. I worked with her many years and you couldn't find a better boss. She treated every employees and resident with the finest care. She treated everyone as her family. Before her health got here down there wasn't a event that she of didn't miss. She loved her kids but her true love was all those grandbabies. Fly high Aunt Janie. I love you. And will miss you dearly .
