“ Dear Mrs. Shores and kids, I was Jason&s peer counselor from December 2007 - January 2009. We read the Bible together, prayed together, and wrote a few poems together. Jason was truly very talented. He expressed daily that he loved his family very much and wanted only the best for them. He was grateful for the love and support he received from each of you. I am deeply saddened and devastated that his life here ended so soon. It&s a joy to know that one day, in heaven, we can again worship our Lord together, free from all the burdens that so easily distract us. God bless each of you and comfort your hearts during this time of grief and mourning.

“ Kathy, I am so sorry to hear about Jason. Like Stormy, I was thinking back and remembering a skater boy with the most amazing blue eyes and a dimple in his chin. I know there really are no words to ease your pain, but please know that you and the boys are in my prayers. I love you.

“ Kathy, you probably dont remember me but I am a good friend of Stormy&s and have met you a couple of times. I was deeply saddened when Stormy told me of your familys loss. My prayers are with all of you. May God bless you and heal your sorrows. And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." Jesus replied, "Truly, you will be with me today in paradise." (Luke 23:42-43)

“ Kathy, I'm no good at this kind of thing. But I wanted you to know that I love you and I am praying for you and the boys. I was thinking yesterday of when you and Jason lived with us. I had to smile because the memories that stand out in my mind are all about skateboarding. I can remember watching Jason skateboard and wanting so bad to be able to do that. And staying up late watching his skateboarding movies. I also remember him taking the time to help me learn to ride my bike. Anyway, I know the years have been up and down but I pray that God will help you to remember the happy times and give you peace. He's in a better place now. I love you.

“ Kathy, Words can't express the compassion and sympathy I feel for you. I pray God comfort you with unwavering assurance that today, Jason stands in His presence free and whole at last; his struggle over, the pain relieved. Death of the body isn't goodbye for those born again in Christ, it's just a momentary separation. Until the time you're reunited, your Love for Jason reaches heaven because love is not bound by distance. I'll continue to pray for you, Rex, Kelan and Kennedy.

“ Matthew 5:4 "Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted." There are no words to convey just how sorry I am for your loss. I do know that many people here at Hatfield prayed many prayers for Jason. Even though we never met him face to face on this earth, I know as believers in Christ, we shall meet him there in heaven one day. Please know that prayers are going before the Lord right now to bring you comfort, peace and asking for ministering angels to surround you in this time of sorrow. May God wrap His arms around you all. Much love & prayers, Pam Sitzes

You are in my constant thoughts. May God Bless you always Kathy.

“ My heart aches for you and the boys as you pass through this storm. As a parent, little could be worse. However Jason knew how much you loved him. How much you gave of yourself for him. You and Rex have a solid Faith and know that what we have here on earth is temporary - that a better place lies ahead. Gayla

Kelan and Kennedy, no one has to tell you how much your daddy loved you. I'm so glad you had some time with him. We love you guys.
