Unfortunately, I never had the privilege of meeting Judy in person but we were friends on Facebook. I regret never having been able to talk with her about Martin family history and lore. I would welcome contact from any cousins to branch my family ties.

“ Judy was my cousin. Even though I lived in Washington state, she always made a point of keeping in touch, even if it was only funny emails she liked to share. Whenever we talked it seemed like she was always doing something for her friends & loved ones. Her giving of her time to others was a model for those who knew her. She will be missed, but I know that she is in a better place. God did truly bless her life.
