“ John was a lot things. John was my shoulder to cry on. My safe zone a place to go where I could say anything without being judged. Or thought less of. If there's a way to go beyond polar opposites we would have found it! He was flowers and card to say i love you for no other reason than he could. I'm even going to miss the one thing that I thought would be the end of me. DRAMA! But John with out it, wouldn't have been John. My heart is broken and the person for more than 2 decades I have depended on has moved on to a better place. My life was turned upside down and shaken. And will never be the same again.

“ Laura, I am so sorry for your loss. We love you and wish that we could be to John's service but Pat will still be in the hospital. John was always special and but something I really remember is when my mom passed away he made a cherry cheesecake and brought it to me. That was such a special thing for him to do for me.
