“ *I remember Judy as a very special lady with many talents and a giving and loving heart. It's been a long time since I've seen her, but I can still remember her sweet smiles. I'm very happy for her, but I know that Marion, Bradley, Andrea, all the grandchildren, and all who were close to her will feel a void and I am seriously praying for you! “ With sadness for your loss and our loss on this earthly journey, but with rejoicing as well that Judy is no longer suffering and is enjoying the glories of heaven with Jesus, C.B., Mabel and my (Naomi) parents who married C.B. and Mabel in Fredonia! The Colaw family has been an inspiration to many through the years and continue to be wonderful friends of ours. We know you are experiencing God's grace, comfort and strength during these days of adjustment.

“ Marion, Andrea, Bradley and families... I am so sorry to hear of Judy's recent illness and passing. However we have a hope that is sure. I've been remembering times that Judy had to entertain me as a visiting PK while they still lived in Springfield. She was always patient and gracious. She will be missed. May God surround you with His comfort and peace. With our prayers and thoughts. Shirley (Moberly) & Gordon Johnson

“ One of my first memories I have is testing to be in kindergarten with Mrs Hadsell. I loved her from that moment on. When my parents said I had to take kindergarten again my only question was "do I get Mrs Hadsell again?!" She had a kind, patient demeanor that I marvel at now that I have children, and I only have two! She was always my favorite grade school teacher and I am sad to hear she is gone but know she has the largest treasure chests in heaven for the amazing woman she was while on Earth. She will be missed. Mr Hadsell, Bradley, and Andrea I am terribly sorry for your loss. Earth lost the most wonderful woman but heaven celebrated.

Judy was a dear, dear friend to whom I loved deeply. The life she lived as a wife, mother, Nana is one I celebrate. I wish I was there...however, the memories of Pleasant View Cemetery and our times together in the surrounding areas give me comfort. My love and prayers are with the family which I live dearly!
