“ Kiersten or as I called her Kewb was my first friend and love in this town. I was an outsider and she was like you're cool, come hang out with me. She loved sloths and sitting around the fire with her homies. When she was gone she would tell me to play "When In Rome - The Promise", it said everything I needed know from her. She was def too cool for this world and maybe that's why they called her home.

“ Two memories I will share but several amazing memories were made over the years ❤️

1. My son, Matthew, was a little challenging growing up. Kiersten never let that phase her. She loved him and treated him as a little brother. The two built a pretty close bond over the years. When Kiersten was old enough to get her tattoo, she got then Scorpio sign which is an M. I remember when she came to work and was showing the artwork on her arm and Matthew screams “You do love me! You got my name! “. Forever that has been there special thing. Kiersten never told him it was something else. She just said yes, it is a M for Matthew ❤️

2. Kiersten accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. What a wonderful day that was and I’m so glad I’ll see her again in Heaven ❤️

Prayers and love being sent. May God wrap His arms around you. God is closest to the broken-hearted ❤️
