“ *Aunt Sonya and family,
So many memories come flooding back thinking of my good looking Uncle Larry! As a child I thought he was so handsome and he always had time for us kids. I loved it when we got to visit the two of you at your apartment in Alva and go swimming--that was so special! I too recall that Uncle Larry always greeted you with a huge smile and made you feel like he had been waiting just to see you. We feel your loss and will continue to keep you all lifted in our prayers as you walk this valley.
All my love, Janella*
