“ Am so saddened by the loss of LaVonna. We grew up together from Kindergarten to 12th grade. Girl Scouting was a strong connection for us and there were many camp outs which often included fishing. Patty Weinmeister and I spoke the other day and she reminded me about playing games and "fort" in the trees on the playground at Horace Mann School with LaVonna. She will be sorely missed by our community, as so many came into contact with her and were ALWAYS greeted by a kind word and a smile. Heaven has gained another angel. With sympathy and love, Elizabeth Parkhurst.

“ I always enjoyed spending time talking and learning from such a wonderful person. She made me laugh when I was sad. She could get just as mad at injustices as I could. We loved laughing at the same things. She will be missed at work and in our lives
