“ Lee and I (NW Electric) worked together on many jobs during his OG&E days. He was always asking about my family and I don't remember him having a negative or unkind remark about work, people or anything in general. He was a kind and gentle man and I enjoyed being around him. Prayers go out to his family and may the memories lift you up during this sad time.

“ Lee and I spent many hours and miles in an OG&E truck. Lee would sing and whistle going down the road. Lee had a beautiful voice. We about always ate in a cafe on Friday but Lee would sit in the truck or under a tree and eat his lunch Ma fixed him. He told me his girls needed cloths and a good education worse than he needed a hot meal. If he ate out with us he always ate what Ma (Virginia) packed in his lunch because he said if he went home with food she'd cut back on his ration. I can still see Lee reading his bible at lunch break. I owe a lot to Lee for taking me under his wing and teaching me to work safely. It showed how much Lee Loved his family by the sacrifices he made. RIP my friend we'll sing together again some day. 🙏 to Lee's family
