How shocking to learn of Lois’ passing! Such a sweet gal. Just a short time ago, we had a good visit at the Market, in Alva. Praying each of your hearts will be comforted by special memories.

“ When God created "The Perfect Aunt", Lois was that creation. When this city kid would come out to learn the ways of farming, she'd treat me like royalty. Wouldn't laugh at me when I didn't want to get up at the crack of dawn to move irrigation pipe or have to drive all over the pastures to find that one calf. She's the nicest most wonderful lady ever. If she was having a bad day you'd never be able to tell it by her.

The last of all her brothers and sisters. A great generation. My father was Delmar Hill. He's the one that knew that this city kid would be taken well care of by Lois and her gracious hospitality. You'll be missed by a lot of family and friends that count themselves lucky to have known my Aunt Lois.

May You Rest in Peace
