“ Marion&s passing is a big loss for our family. He was always so kind to us when we visited them at Thanksgiving. He hauled all of our stuff into the house without one complaint. He prepared an omelet every morning for breakfast. He always said,"I hope you like omelets because that is all I cook". We loved them and looked forward to them every morning. Marion, when we get to the gates of heaven, we hope you have an omelet ready and waiting for us. We were touched at how he would go to the nursing home every morning to have coffee with the fellows. They probably looked forward to it as much as he did. He also cherished his family, Barbara, Ruth and his sisters. He thought his mom was the best mom in the world and Barbara was the best wife in the world. We will miss him so. It just seems he left us too early.
