

Marjorie Hayward

October 22, 1907 - April 24, 2012

Graveside services for Marjorie Caroline Hayward will be 2:00 p.m. Monday, April 30, 2012, at the Alva Municipal Cemetery with Rev. Joshua Leu officiating. Interment is under the direction of Marshall Funeral Home. In the event of rain, the service will be at the Marshall Funeral Home Chapel.

Marjorie Caroline Hayward, daughter of the late Guy Metcalf and Reba (Carrico) Lisk, was born October 22, 1907, at Alva, Oklahoma, and passed away April 23, 2012, at Bartlesville, Oklahoma, at the age of 104 years, 6 months, and 1 day.

On June 1, 1926, she was united in marriage to John Noel "Jack" Hayward. They made their home in Alva. To this union three children were born, Patricia Ann, Virginia Sue, and Jerry Lisk.

Marjorie attended Alva Public Schools. In 1947 she obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from Northwestern State College and began her career where she became a public administrator in social services, retiring after 30 years. She was a member of the Church of Christ, Scientist.

She loved Alva and held memberships in Chapter C, P.E.O., Daughters of the American Revolution, and Sigma Kappa Sorority. She was cofounder and member of the original board of the Nescatunga Arts and Humanities Council. She was passionate about the Runnymede Hotel restoration project, making many contributions. An avid bridge player, she enjoyed spending many hours playing bridge with her friends.

A lover of antiques, she enjoyed collecting and displaying her vast collections in her home. A distinguished artist in her own right, she and her husband, artist J. N. Hayward, enhanced their artistic talents through their travels. Her hobbies included painting, crocheting, knitting, sewing, and working with her hands, leaving her family and friends many beautiful keepsakes. She loved to shop, especially for shoes.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Jack; one son, Jerry; two daughters, Patricia, and Virginia Brandenburg; and two brothers, James and Robert Lisk.

Marjorie is survived by three granddaughters, Linda Sue Brandenburg of Savannah, Georgia, Jennifer Brandenburg Leu and husband, Sam, of Bartlesville, and Carrie Hayward Helms and husband, Dennis, of Warner Robins, Georgia; four great grandchildren; six great great grandchildren; a special niece, Cynthia DePrado and her husband, Tony; other relatives and friends.

"Grammie? enjoyed life to it?s fullest and saw beauty in all things.

Memorial contributions may be made through the funeral home to the Nescatunga Arts and Humanities Council or the Runnymede Hotel.

Tribute Wall

“ Marjorie Hayward

January 30, 2023 at 03:38 AM

“ Linda, I am sorry for your loss. Your grandmother made a huge contribution to the Alva community. She was a beautiful lady. My sympathies to all your family.

Jane Lewis Wiseman - April 27, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ I cannot express how much my friendship with Marj means to me. What a role model for aging! I will miss her terribly. I know that she has influenced so many people in this life. What a joy she is, so gracious, smart and kind! A great historian for Alva has moved up! You, the family, are in my thoughts and prayers. Sonna Russell

Sonna Russell - April 25, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ So sorry to hear this news Nipper. My she had a fun filled life though. I don't think I remember seeing her without a smile and those high heels on dressed up so pretty. Mallory and I are thinking of you and your family at this time. Prayers to all of you. Mallory and Janette

janette seevers - April 25, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JL

“ What a blessing to have known Marjorie! Her joy, kindness and appreciation in life is what first got my attention. As time went by, she never failed to show me her determination and courage. I&m grateful to have been friends with her and will always remember her. Thank you, family, for sharing her with me. I am thinking of you all during this difficult time.

Judy Lorenz - April 24, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JK

“ What an honor to have Marjorie in my life these last 5 years. The joy she brought forth will continue in all my thoughts of her precious little self. She will always be with me. Blessings to family.

Jo Knight - April 24, 2012 at 12:00 AM