“ Shairy and Marvin&s family We are in shock to hear of Marvin&s accidental death. We so enjoyed our visits with you when we visited my mother, Alice Bouse. I remember fun times at lunch at Twin Oaks when all 10 of us ate on the porch. Marvin&s lunch consisted of jelly and butter sandwiches, jelly and butter crackers, cookies and a apple from from the Kendall orchard and milk. Maybe all of those sweet lunches made him the sweet, gentle, caring person he was all of his life. Love and hugs form Bill and Loraine in Virginia.

“ Marvin had all of the wonderful qualities that we all strive for....honesty, hard work, integrity, faithfulness, mildness, self-control.....all of the fruitages of the spirit along with quick wittedness. God promises his resurrection and for God, it is impossible to lie. We were all blessed to have known Marvin and are saddened for our loss.....and for Shairy&s loss, especially.

“ We extend our deepest sympathy in the tragic loss of Marvin. Our community will feel such a void, as he was such a good, trusting man, who will be greatly missed by all who knew him. We pray each of you may find comfort in special memories, and may your hearts be warmed by love of friends, family, and most of all our Lord...the one and only who can provide such love.
