“ I am very saddened to hear of Grandma Arndt?s passing. It pains me these last few years we were not able to be as close as we once were. I truly miss our weekly visits she and grandpa used to share, before my move from Alva. I will remember them fondly, as this was a special time for us all. Finally being able to reconnect as adults and share my family with them. She always kept me up on family news and what a lovely young lady Whitney had become. I still have the senior pictures she passed on to me. While I am sorry to hear about her passing, I am glad she does not have to endure the heartache of ?our situation? any longer. What a burden it must have been for her to carry all these years. I am joyful to know she is at peace with the Lord and maybe she can finally be free from that worry. I will continue to pray for you and your heartache, while I continue to deal with mine.
