“ *So that you might receive a sympathy message from our family quicker than a card, we send these words. Words alone do not erase your sorrow, but we pen these words:
"A mother&s love is the kind of love that lasts... the kind that reaches across time...the kind that keeps you forever close in spirit."
May you will find strength to carry you through this difficult time and faith to reassure you that grief will soften and love will always endure.
Clarence, to you and your children and grandchildren we send you our love and prays.*
