

Myron Bradt

May 14, 1957 - July 11, 2010

Funeral services for Myron J. Bradt will be 2:00 p.m. Saturday, July 17, 2010, at the Alva First United Methodist Church with Rev. Terry Martindale and Rev. Darrel Hardy officiating. Interment will be in the Alva Municipal Cemetery under the direction of Marshall Funeral Home of Alva.

The casket will remain open at the funeral home until 11:00 a.m. Saturday and remain closed at the church.

Myron J. Bradt, son of Rex Dale Bradt and the late Twila Valee (Castor) Bradt, was born May 14, 1957, at Alva, Oklahoma, and passed away July 11, 2010, at his favorite fishing hole southwest of Alva, at the age of 53 years, 1 month, and 27 days.

A 1975 graduate from Freedom High School, Myron later graduated from Northwestern Oklahoma State University in 1979 with a degree in Industrial Arts. On December 17, 1977, he was united in marriage to Charlene Susan Mallory at Alva, Oklahoma. He farmed with his family in Harper, Woods, and Alfalfa Counties in Oklahoma.

Myron was very active in the Republican Party, including serving as County Chairman for many years. He was instrumental in helping the start up of Value Added Products in Alva. He was awarded the Alva Area Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year in 2000 for the many contributions he made to his community.

Myron was appointed by Governor Frank Keating to the Oklahoma International Trade Development Council, as well as numerous other state and county level committees.

He was a member of the Alva First United Methodist Church where he served on many committees, as well as serving as Trustee Chairman. He was also a member of the Antique Car Club and RACE (Race and Car Enthusiasts) in Alva.

Besides his mother, Twila, he was preceded in death by one brother, Jerrel Burnell Bradt; and his step-mother, Edythe Bradt.

Myron is survived by his wife, Charlene, of Alva; twin sons, Jerad Bradt and wife, JoDe, of Alva, and Nick Bradt and wife, Cara, of Alva; one daughter, Lisa Bradt, of Alva; his father, Rex Bradt, of Freedom; one brother, Gary Bradt and wife, Teresa, of Freedom; one sister, Anetta McIver, of Amarillo, Texas; one step brother, Darin Harris and wife, Denise, of Yukon; two grandchildren, Braylon and Brickman Bradt; his father and mother in-law, Wesley and Towanda Mallory, of Alva; his sister-in-law, Barbara Holman and husband, Robert, of Prague; other relatives and many friends.

The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions be made through the funeral home to establish the Myron Bradt Scholarship for Speech, Theatre, and Debate scholarships.

“ Charlene and Family, I for once at a loss of the right words to say to you. I will never forget when I found out they missed a baby and I was having twins. Myron was so excited! I remember him telling me all the great things I was about to enjoy. He never once said one bad thing about anyone and always hugged me when I came home... it is great to have you home. He was a special guy to our family and it will be so hard to come home without his sweet words. We are all thinking of you and the kids everyday. We love you!!

“ We have so many fond memories of the Bradt and Mallory Families together. Charlene we go way back to Auntie Mame and I so remember Myron at Gibsons. Knowing how Myron loved you, his wonderful sons, and then the daughter that came into your life. You have so many wonderful memories to share with each other. Myron left many memories for you, your family and our community to remember him. You both have always "Given" so much. Your family always "Gave" together. May you have strength and wisdom as your continue your journey with your loving family.

“ Bradt and Mallory families: You ALL, including Myron, were a huge influence on me as a high school student. Myron in particular made me feel I belonged to the speech/debate family when he hired me (as a freshman) to help DJ school dances. He was very patient with us in the set-up and tear down process. Besides my parents, he was my first boss. He taught me how to work hard and have fun doing it.

I was fascinated to watch Charlene and Myron interact on speech and debate trips, working on plays, and the like. At school and in your home, I got to see your marriage in action, and I learned it was just like DJ-ing - work hard but have fun!

Though I have to explain it to most people by referring to Myron, I STILL to this day use the term "UBI". As I build my own high school theatre program, I use a lot of what Myron and Charlene taught me with my own students (except they don't rub my husband's belly for good luck :)). If I can be 1/10th of the positive influence on my students that you were on me, I will have succeeded.

“ Myron was a special, amazing man. Everyone that he touched will a keep a little part of him alive in their hearts. I&ll always remember what a great guy he was, and how he made a little freshman girl feel like she was really a part of the team. I&m so blessed to have known him. Thank you for sharing him with all of us. His smile, his jokes, and his laugh will never be forgotten. He brought joy to the world. He just now has a better view for the fireworks. I love you all.

“ Dear Charlene and Family,
I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and concern for you and also share with you the wonderful hope for our dead loved ones. As you grieve Myron's death, please reflect on the hope in question, which comes from Jehovah God. By means of the Bible, He allows us to understand how He'll eliminate death for good one day and bring our dead loved ones back to life. This is evident in Scriptures like (Isaiah 25: 8), (John 5: 28), (1 Corinthians 15:26), (Revelation 21:3 and 4), which can comfort you and give you inner peace. God's promises, which are highlighted in His word, the Bible, are guaranteed because He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). Moreover John 11 verses 11-14, 39, 43, and 44 attest that Jesus, whom God appoints to bring the dead back to life, can do it since he did it when he resurrected Lazarus and several others when he was on earth. So as you await Myron's resurrection, please heed Jesus' counsel in John 17 verse 3 and take steps to gain accurate knowledge of Jehovah God and His son, Jesus by carefully studying the Bible with the Witnesses when they come to your door. In John 5 verse 39, Jesus explains that such study is imperative for anyone who wishes to have everlasting life one day here on earth, which will become a paradise where you can be re-united with Myron again in a world free of violence, war, sickness, old age, even death etc? as stated in the following Scriptures:(Ps 37: 9-11 and 29), (Psalms 46: 8 and 9), (Isaiah 33:24), (Job: 33:25).
May Jehovah comfort you in this time of distress!

“ Charlene and family, Myron was a wonderful person. I remember how he always helped with the speech and debate teams, drove us from town to town no matter how late it was when we got home or how early we had to get up, went to get the pizza and chow and how he was always a part of getting things done. He was always easy to talk to, and was a really good person. Myron will be deeply missed. Please accept my deepest sympathies for you and your family. My thoughts and prayers are with yall.

“ Nick,
I was so sorry to learn of Myron's death and I have been praying for your family that God will guide you through this sad, difficult time. Although I didn't know him, I know Myron was well-thought of and respected and Alva has definitely suffered a loss. Losing a parent is very hard, no matter what age you are, and I'm so sorry that you and Jerad are having to experience this so early in your life. Find comfort in your memories and keep the faith.
