I helped Aunt Norma in harvest every summer. I was a nanny, dishwasher, laundry helper, and anything else she needed help doing. Of course, at that young age of 9, I thought I was being abused 😞 I had my baby when I was barely 18 & I was prepared. I knew how to take care of her because I had helped Aunt Norma with her girls. They've always seemed like mine. Now they're grown & have kids of their own. Aunt Norma was my last living aunt; she will be missed greatly; and in so many ways. THANK YOU!! UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN!!!!

“ I met Norma as a college kid when I started hanging out with Shelly. She always made me feel welcome. She was quick to laugh. Lots of fun to be around. Even in the hard times she had a sunny side. She weathered a lot of storms on earth but I'm betting she is goofing around with Julie and James right now. RIP I love you and it was a blessing to have known you.
