

Patricia "Patty" A Clements

February 21, 1945 - February 21, 2016

Patricia A. 'Patty' (Dryden) Clements, 67, daughter of the late David Isaac and Velta Evon (Turner) Dryden was born February 21, 1945, at Mooreland, Oklahoma. She passed to be with her Savior February 21, 2016, on her 67th birthday at Share Medical Center at Alva, Oklahoma. She was cremated at her request under the direction of Marshall Funeral Home and there will be no service.

Patty was raised on the Dryden farm east of Vici, Oklahoma. She graduated from Vici High School. Patty liked to plant flowers and any kind of gardening. She also liked knitting afghans and giving them to everyone, playing Bingo, playing the piano, writing poetry, crocheting, painting, calling her sister, Phyllis, and talking every day and also talking with a special young man, David Hollen, on the phone. A favorite childhood memory was her father teaching her to drive.

She was a member of the Nazarene Church and never liked to miss the services. She loved the residents at Beadles Nursing Home, where she had lived for twelve years and called Beadles her second home.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two sisters, Judy Pauls and Devana; two brothers, Frank and Richard Dryden; two nieces Marla Pauls and Melanie Brosh; and one nephew, Pete Pauls.

Patty is survived by her husband, Ron Clements; one sister, Phyllis Hixson and her husband Henry of Woodward; one aunt, Louise Turner Smith of California; David Hollen of Oklahoma City; nieces, Kelly Hixon Smith, Melodie

Brosh Calloway, Melissa Kimball, Johna Dryden; nephews, Richard Owen Hixson, Ches Brosh, Rick Dryden, her second family at Beadles Nursing Home that she loved very much who were there when she needed them; other relatives and many friends.
