Tribute Wall

“ I worked for Lee and Peggy at their lake house on Grand Lake. Peggy always introduced me as her friend, not her housekeeper. I admired them both for that. We had a mutual respect and deep friendship. I loved them both immensely. Always fun to be had and stories to tell. They were the best people. It broke my heart to leave them but work drew me away. I just found this page and am greatly saddened. I've always missed and love them both. Irreplaceable.

“ We have lots of great memories of Peggy! We shared many meals and many fun times with her and Lee. We laughed together and cried together. I think her and I bonded over a pot of chicken noodle soup!! What ever drew us together, she was a wonderful friend and we will miss her greatly!! Her quick wit was something I will always remember about her!! Clete and I have been blessed to be friends and neighbors to her and Lee for 6 years!! God brings the people into you life that he knows you need, he truly gave us the gift of Peggy!!!

*We hold all your family in our prayers! We love you all!!
