“ I will always remember Robin's sense of humor and smile. Cayenne and I sure gave her a run for her money during our teenage years and she was like a second mother to me then. We pulled quite a few pranks on her and she always took it in stride. Robin had this theory that Elaine could be a universal middle name. She called all of us by our first name and Elaine..even the boys. Anytime people are struggling to find a baby middle name I always suggest Elaine with a little smile on my face. And it really is true! I haven't found any names that it doesn't go with!! That and the time Cayenne and I found an old cucumber buried in the crisper draw that was wayyyyyy beyond its time! We gave Robin heck about that for ever. Maybe that's why I can't even stand the smell of cucumbers, let alone to taste it. Thanks for all the laughs and life lessons you snuck in on us R.D. You sure raised one beautiful family and I'm thankful I got to come along for some of the ride. ❤️
