“ Wade, Debbie, Gary Chris and Jace, I was so sorry to hear about your mom. Last time I saw her was about twenty years ago when my grandmother (Violet) passed away. She sent me a card, which I still have... what she wrote about my grandmother was beautiful. I remember a lot of good times when we were all kids... so many aunts, uncles and cousins living all around the Morning Star mile square. You are all in my thoughts and prayers...

“ Sims Family, I know you do not know who I am, but a few months ago when Veneta was in the hospital, I was one of the lucky people who got to take care of her. I say lucky because I would sometimes have to come in and wake her and Max up for her x-rays for the day, and she was such a sweet heart, I hated that she had to be there, but loved getting to talk to her and Max. I just wanted to say what a joy it was to be able to meet her and get to spend time with her. She was so amazing and so strong. I will keep your family in my prayers.
