“ Grandma Verna was a rock for her family and friends. She helped many years with the kids at the Church of God on Rose street. If there was something going on at the senior citizens you could find her there. Tapping her toe to some good oldies and uplifting hymns. Might even catch her singing along. She blessed many life's of people and made a difference to some that didn't know who she was. Sometimes she was know only as Vern's, Tamara's and Felisha's grandmother. I knew her as the sweetest women that God put upon this earth.
