“ I am sorry for your loss and send my sincere condolence to the family and friends. When the enemy death strikes our grief can be great. It is at times like this that we need comfort and support whether we are acquainted or not. May you find comfort in Almighty God promise of the resurrection (Acts 24:15). All of God&s promises will come true, for it is impossible for God to lie (Hebrews 6;18). Respectfully,

“ Our sympathy and prayers are with Virginia&s family. Virginia was a very dear friend and neighbor when we all lived on Sherman Street in Alva. We sure enjoyed her for a neighbor. We remember her making her delicious Mexican dip several times for us. She would make a wonderful rum cake each Christmas to give us. One thing I remember so well is when I was teaching she was so thoughtful and would sometimes bring us a meal over after my first day of teaching. How we appreciated that and her thoughtfulness. We often shared food with her too. Virginia was fun to be around and we enjoyed visiting with her. We missed her so much when she moved. God bless her family.

“ Dear Family,

So sorry for your loss. May you rejoice in the many wonderful memories you had with her always. I know how very proud she was of each of her sons. May God bless you always. I will never forget the AFD responding to the fire at her apartment...being the result of a baked potatoe in foil. So thankful for the outcome.
