“ Our mother, Lois Bay Jones, had such wonderful memories of growing up with her cousins in the Waynoka area. She spoke of the kind, dedicated & hardworking person Eileen was. Those women, like the generation before them, saw many changes and challenges over their lifetime. Instead of becoming hard, those challenges made them strong. We can be proud of the heritage our mothers and grandmothers left us and be greatly encouraged by their example of a “life well lived”. I know she will be missed every day just as our mother is. We can be comforted with gratitude of having mothers worth missing.

“ I have so many fond memories of Eileen. She was our next-door neighbor all through my childhood.

One of my favorite memories is a funny one that perfectly captures who she was. When I was in second grade, my best friend was getting a little sister. I decided I wanted one too, so I told some of my classmates that my mom was expecting.

A few weeks later, Eileen had knitted a pair of baby booties for my mom. My mom thanked her and gently asked who the booties were for. Eileen replied, “Your baby that’s on the way.” When they finally got to the bottom of it, they shared a really great laugh that we still share at family gatherings.

That was Eileen so sweet, kind, and always thinking of others. She was truly a wonderful lady.
