“ Dear Reegs, My deepest condolences to all of you. Wil was someone you could count on for a shoulder to lean on, a dose of reality to give perspective, and a sassy remark to make you laugh. May God's peace surround you as you grieve and remember.

“ To the Reeg family: I'm so sorry for your loss. Being a minister, I'm reminded of a promise found in the book of Isaiah chap 33 verse 24 where God promises that one day "no one will be sick." And at another place in Isaiah he promises an end to death. These and many more blessing will be brought about by Gods Kingdom with Jesus the son of God as King. So as you reflect of the time you spent with Wilma, remember Almighty Gods promise. I'll pray for your family.
